

Eliminating the PST on used cars...PROMISE KEPT.

Helping families by capping the cost of prescription drugs for children
...PROMISE KEPT.

Tougher penalties for repeat drunk drivers...PROMISE KEPT.

A round table on the duty to consult and accommodate...PROMISE KEPT

More doctor and nurse training seats...PROMISE KEPT.

More approved prescription drugs under the formulary...PROMISE KEPT.

$5 million for community based organizations to help families with life skills and job training...PROMISE KEPT.

$500,000 for school lunch and hunger programs...PROMISE KEPT.

$3 million in new money to hire more police officers...PROMISE KEPT.

$8 million to fight organized crime and gangs...PROMISE KEPT

$1 million in new funding for transition houses...PROMISE KEPT

Paid down the debt by $250 million this year AND last year...PROMISE KEPT.

Cancelled the DOMTAR deal on the Prince Albert pulp mill, saving taxpayers $100 million...PROMISE KEPT.

Created Enterprise Saskatchewan, a public private partnership that will be Saskatchewan's central economic agency...PROMISE KEPT.

Put the safety of Saskatchewan people first by introducing essential services legislation...PROMISE KEPT.

Made the workplace more democratic by introducing the secret ballot and freedom of speech...PROMISE KEPT.

Encouraged drivers to go green by offering rebates for those who drive green vehicles...PROMISE KEPT.

We are consulting with taxpayers to determine the best way to fund the education system...PROMISE KEPT.

$5 million for Saskatchewan parks...PROMISE KEPT.

Balance the budget, Mr. Speaker...PROMISE KEPT.

Mr. Speaker, as the members opposite will tell you, it's easy to make promises...and, as the members opposite will tell you, it's keeping them that's the deal-breaker.